

NEOTERIC '15...A New Beginning (Fresher's Welcome)

Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies organized a cultural extravaganza on Friday 21st August 2015 to welcome its new batch of students from management and journalism streams in its campus. The Cultural Society of the Institute, MACS arranged a fun –filled cultural program to commemorate the event.

The event was sponsored by the U'th time...an e-magazine. The event was graced by the presence of our Honorable Chairman, Dr Nand Kishore Garg, Mr Jagdish Mittal (trustee, MATES) and Dr C.S.Sharma (Director MAIMS). Ms. Anjali Garg a trustee of The Maharaja Agrasen Technical Education Society presided over the function.

The event started by evoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. Dr. Nand Kishore Garg, welcomed the fresher and motivated them to take initiative in honing their inherent skills as well as to strive for academic excellence. Dr C. S. Sharma apprised the students about umpteen opportunities available at MAIMS for their holistic development. He expressed his hope that the students will make their stay in the institute meaningful and memorable and encouraged them to be job creators rather than job seekers.

The sps of the day, U'th Time conducted a youth talent hunt named 'Y-factor' in which fresher's showcased their talent. Ms.Girisha Singh and Mr. Rupank Sharma were announced as Ms and Mr Fresher 2015, respectively. Mr. Naman Sharma, CEO of U'th Times, appreciated the performance of the freshers and offered a role to Mr. Fresher for their forthcoming short film to be launched on their YouTube Channel 'Y' TV Network.

The Urban Hopper's dance performance, melodious medley, a comic act, etc. filled the audience with great enthusiasm. The engaging comparing and the entertaining cultural programme kept the audience enthralled throughout the event.
