

A FESTIVAL OF DANCE, MUSIC AND FASHION AT MAIMS(16,17 March 2017)

Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies' (MAIMS) Annual Cultural Festival, GENESIS 2017, held on March 16 and 17, at Rohini (Delhi). Mr. Anuj Gogia, Special Director, Enforcement Directorate, was the Chief Guest for the inauguration function while Mr Balraj Nandwani, MD, Comfort Age, was the Guest of Honour . Dr Nand Kishore Garg, Chancellor, Maharaja Agrasen University, Himachal Pradesh, and Shri Prem Sagar Goel, Chairman, MATES, also graced the occasion.

Genesis was a gala affair where music, dance and fashion came together, creating a festive mood in one and all. The festival created a colourful collage of street plays, cooking competition, business quiz competition, debate competition, comedy hunt, treasure-hunt, on-the-spot photography, T-shirt painting, dance, music, fashion and a host of other programmes, and attracted more than 5000 enthusiastic participants.

Dance groups from various Delhi University and IP University colleges set the stage on fire with their flips, electric dance moves and impeccable coordination. Dance groups from Maitreyi College and Miranda House bagged the first and second prize respectively.

Fashion groups were whistled and applauded by the audience for their costume designs and catchy themes. The first prize in the fashion show went to Maitreyi College while Maharaja Agarsen Institute of Technology won the second prize.

The festival ended with the electrical musical performances by popular Punjabi singers Neevo, KAY ESS and DJ PERISHA. Thousands of students danced to their beats and made the college ground sway with the flowing music.

