

Commemoration of the Constitution Day (26th November, 2019)

On the auspicious occasion of the 70th Anniversary of the Constitution of India, a grand function, under the aegis of the Maharaja Agrasen Technical Education Society (MATES), School of Law, MAIMS was organized to commemorate the historic event.

On Tuesday, 26th November, 2019, the event was organized at NDMC Convention Centre, Connaught Place, New Delhi.

On this occasion, the well known Legal Luminary, Economist par excellence, Senior & Seasoned Politician, Dr. Subramanian Swamy, M.P & Former Union Minister of Law was the Chief Guest of the function. Mr. Alok Kumar, Former Deputy Speaker, Delhi Vidhan Sabha & Working President, Vishva Hindu Parishad was the Guest of Honour to grace the occasion.

To commemorate the Constitution Day, Mr. S.K Sharma, Former Secretary, Lok Sabha & Delhi Vidhan Sabha launched a book titled “STATEHOOD FOR DELHI?” to enlighten the people about the administrative structure of the NCT of Delhi, as envisaged by the Constitution Makers. The book was formally released by Dr. Subramanian Swamy and other Dignitaries. Referring to the Constituent Assembly Debates and deliberations which took place in the Committees pertaining to the structure, powers & status of Delhi in Federal Polity like ours, Mr. Sharma quoted some original & authentic documents procured from the National Archives to authenticate the veracity of the facts mentioned therein.

Welcoming the Guests, Director General, Prof. S.K Garg, highlighted the achievements made by the Institute and the pioneering role played by the ‘School of Law’ in attaining a pride of place in the Academic Domain within a short span.

Dr. Subramanian Swamy in his address appreciated the initiative taken by the MATES to commemorate the historic day and enlighten the people about the relevance of our Constitution in moulding the society in the right perspective. He highlighted the role of Judiciary in the present context to strengthen the edifice of Democracy in the Country.

Mr. Alok Kumar commending the role of the Judiciary in settling the Ram Mandir dispute and thereby spreading Harmony in the community, emphasized that the seeds of Democracy are ingrained in our Society from time immemorial. He further said that on this auspicious day we should be vigilant about the challenges we have to face in the years to come. We have to strive hard to face the challenges and to attain Social Harmony.

Dr. Nand Kishore Garg, Founder Chairman & Chief Advisor, MATES and Chancellor, Maharaja Agrasen University, H.P. expressed his gratitude to all the distinguished guests to share their insights in enlightening the audience about the relevance of National Constitution Day to celebrate it as a State function and to follow the policy and principles contained in it.

Assuring his utmost conviction, he promised to continue his efforts to provide Quality Education to all the sections of the Society.

Proposing Vote of Thanks, Prof. Rakesh Kumar Gupta, Vice Chancellor, Maharaja Agrasen University, H.P. expressed the hope that the students will draw inspiration from this thought provoking exposition by our distinguished Guests and will get a clear insight about the relevance of the Constitution of India in the functioning of a Democratic polity.
